Not Confirmed.

The rumor, by telegraph, yesterday, on the authority of the N. Y. Times correspondent, that the government had given orders to surrender Fort Moultrie, if attacked, is not confirmed to day; and we hope is not correct. If such orders had been given, we think some mention would have been made of it in the Washington news of to-day.

The Troubles in Southern Kansas.

We have received from a correspondent at Monroe, in this state, a slip from a Mound City, K. T. paper, containing the proceedings of a public meeting of the citizens of Linn and Bourbon counties, giving an account of the origin of the recent troubles in southern Kansas.

The resolutions of this meeting state that the reports of bloodshed and robbery grew out of the fact of the execution of three persons, the arrest of three, and the trial of two others. Ras. Hinds and Samuel Scott, were hung, and L. D. Moore was shot. J. M. Hoffnagle, Dustin, Scott, were arrested, submitted to trial and in default of sufficient evidence of guilt, were released, and John McDonald was arrested, but released without a formal trial. These persons were not arrested, tried and executed by a small party of ruffians, outlaws and criminal adventurers, but by a committee of the citizens of Linn and Bourbon counties. The statement of Judge Williams, and other fugitive United States officials, and all others, which differ from the above facts, are pronounced willful and unmitigated falsehoods, entitling their authors to the contempt of every honest citizen.

The meeting justified these executions, on account of the plottings of those who were executed, to murder and assassinate citizens, and because of the slow and inefficient administration of the laws. They declare that they will not commence hostilities against any legally constituted authority, but will defend themselves against all violence, as the exigencies of the case may demand.

Our Monroe correspondent says he is acquainted with Judge Williams and that he is an ardent patriot, having in 1850, run away from the village where he lived because he was afraid of the cholera. He says: "His absconding from the rumors of danger at Fort Scott, and his reports of murder and blood and thunder were only a second edition of his cowardice in 1850, and his awful yams on that occasion, when he spread the most exaggerated reports of the scourge of God on his coward path to the interior of Iowa," were characteristic of the individual.

A SUCCESSION OF AFFLICTIONS.—Election week was a trying one to "our Larrabee." He was badly beaten at the polls on Tuesday. Wednesday he had a personal "set-to" in Milwaukee, and came out second best. Thursday he slipped from the roof of his house in Horicon and tried the solidity of the ground on which the house is built. Such a rapid succession of afflictions ought to exempt him from any future calamity.

For the Daily Gazette.

Messrs. Editors:—In these times that try men's spiritual column, when slavery propagandists at the south are threatening to batter down the Union, that slavery may run rampant over the territories, and their sympathizers, aiders and abettors, at the north, are holding meetings and bringing every imaginable force to bear on weak kneed republicans, to induce them to sacrifice their principles, or in doughface phraseology "to sacrifice their party to save their country," and when some republicans are showing unmistakable signs of weakness in the aforesaid spiritual region; would it not be well to hold a meeting here in Rock county, if they hold one no where else, and give an expression by those who don't believe that the election of Lincoln, nor the suppression of the African slave trade, nor yet the personal liberty bills of northern states, are sufficient cause for a dissolution of the Union? My opinion is that such a meeting should be held in all the northern states. It would sustain those who are strong, stiffen those who are weak, and give doughfaces and traitors, both north and south, to understand distinctly, that we do not propose to compromise away that for which we have fought so hard to win.—Let us stand forth and tell those legitimate sons of tory sires in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, South Carolina, Georgia and elsewhere, that they can neither destroy the Union nor carry slavery into the territories with our consent, nor dictate to us until they subdue us.

SARDINIA'S PROPOSAL TO THE POPE.—Victor Emanuel's government offered to be responsible for that part of the public debt at Rome, which falls to the territory occupied by Sardinia. Cardinal Antonelli met these overtures with a peremptory refusal.

A GOOD IDEA.—The street inspectors of Troy, N. Y. have ordered the slippery sidewalks through the main thoroughfares of the city, sprinkled with saw-dust, to lessen the dangers of "slipping up." The perils of pedestrianism in the city are considerably lessened since the adoption of the "saw-dust platform."

A DELUSION.—The report of the death of ex-senator Delazon Smith of Oregon, proves to be a delusion. The report of his death had its origin in a paper politically opposed to him—speaking of him as dead—in a political sense.

THE CHINESE WAR.—SACKING OF PEKING.—On the 9th of December intelligence had been received in London that the allies had captured Peking; that the Emperor's summer palace had been sacked and the Emperor's summer spoils taken, and that the Emperor had fled to Tientsin.

HOLIDAY GIFTS.—Monday will be a busy day in the purchase of Christmas gifts. The entire week will be more or less devoted to an interchange of friendly remembrances. Many of our business houses have supplied themselves liberally in anticipation of a large demand, and we hope our citizens will remember them, instead of sending away from home. Our resident dealers are all interested in the general prosperity of business, and have claims upon the local trade that ought not to be forgotten. The money paid them helps sustain those who sustain us, and it is kept at home for home circulation. It is a good rule, in all kinds of business to support each other.

THE RIGHT KIND.—One of our merchants who sent to the east payment for a note held against him, with exchange, received an acknowledgment, saying "we admire your pluck," and crediting him in his account with the exchange. This is the right kind of spirit on the part of the eastern holder; as well as the right "pluck" in the western maker.

FOLK-SONGS.—The beautiful volume with this title is intended as a gift book for all seasons, and is composed of emotional poems, made for the popular heart, by many famous poets. It has sixty original illustrations, exquisite in design and execution, and fifteen autograph copies of poems, expressly contributed for the work. The printing and binding are specimens of perfection, and the whole work is the richest and most elegant gift book ever produced in America. For sale by O. J. Dearborn.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.—The officers of Fulton Lodge No. 69, will be installed at the lodge hall in Edgerton on the evening of January 2d. We understand invitations to witness the ceremony will be extended to persons not members of the fraternity. An address will be delivered. The lodge is in a very flourishing condition, and numbers among its members some of the best citizens of Fulton.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. No. 3.—A special meeting of this company will be held at their hall on Monday evening Dec. 24th at 7 o'clock. Every member is requested to be in attendance.

D. C. WARD, Foreman.

SACK COMPANY, No. 1.—A special meeting of Sack company No. 1, will be held at its room in empire block, Monday evening, Dec. 24th, to appoint delegates to the convention to nominate officers for the first department.

CHAS. HOLT, Foreman.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The jury, in the case of Mapes, were discharged last evening without agreeing upon a verdict.

This afternoon, Henry A. Ewing was sentenced to six months imprisonment in the state prison for larceny.

John Thornton and Nicholas Stenmar were sentenced to imprisonment three years each for burglary.

J. T. W. Murray, for obtaining goods under false pretences, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50.

COMMON COUNCIL.—But little business was done in the council last evening.

A liquor license was granted to Imman & Pepper. The committee appointed to examine the accounts of the various city treasurers since the organization of the city, was granted further time to report. An order was adopted to employ some person to watch the bridges and report and prosecute all violations of the ordinance against fast driving. Orders on the judgment fund in favor of Mrs. A. M. Case and Miss Webster were authorized. An order for $3 to Scott for labor on the bridge, and one to Thomas Thornton for $12.50 on the 2d ward fund for stone used in repair of Milwaukee street, were voted.

Adjourned to Friday evening next.

BRING IT BACK.—A large, heavy black overcoat was taken by mistake from the high school building last evening, and another left in its place. The coat taken had several printed cards in one of the pockets, with the name of Frances C. Whitier. The person making the exchange is requested to call at this office and "trade back."

THE PORTAGE CITY RECORD says that an attempt was made to burn the business portion of that city last Friday evening. Carefully prepared faggots and balls of wicking saturated with spirits of turpentine were placed under a barn immediately in the rear of the wooden block on the west side of De Witt street, and set on fire. Happily it was immediately discovered and extinguished before it had communicated to the building at all.

MORE VIOLENCE.—On Friday evening last a party of six men, who had just been driven out of the south, after being subjected to almost inconceivable indignities, passed through this city on their way to Rhode Island, where most of them reside. They report that in the cotton states the mob, organized into vigilance committees or bands of minute men, are making a clean sweep of all who have the misfortune to have been born in the north.—Chicago Tribune.

DEATH OF THE DEER.—The carcasses of thirty-one deer were brought into Eau Claire on Monday last week, in one batch. There were at least fifty taken into the same town within three days.

Not Confirmed.

The rumor, by telegraph, yesterday, on the authority of the N. Y. Times correspondent, that the government had given orders to surrender Fort Mifflin, if attacked, is not confirmed to-day; and we hope is not correct. If such orders had been given, we think some mention would have been made of it in the Washington news of to-day.

The Troubles in Southern Kansas.

We have received from a correspondent at Monroe, in this state, a slip from a Mound City, K. T. paper, containing the proceedings of a public meeting of the citizens of Linn and Bourbon counties, giving an account of the origin of the recent troubles in southern Kansas.

The resolutions of this meeting state that the reports of bloodshed and robbery grew out of the fact of the execution of three persons; the arrest of three, and the trial of two others. Rus. Hinde and Samuel Scott, were hung, and L. D. Moore was shot. J. M. Hoffnagle, Dustin, Scott, were arrested, submitted to trial and in default of sufficient evidence of guilt, were released, and John McDonald was arrested, but released without a formal trial. These persons were not arrested, tried and executed by a small party of ruffians, outlaws and criminal adventurers, but by a committee of the citizens of Linn and Bourbon counties. The statement of Judge Williams, and other fugitive United States officials, and all others, which differ from the above facts, are pronounced willful and unmitigated falsehoods, entitling their authors to the contempt of every honest citizen.

The meeting justified these executions, on account of the plottings of those who were executed, to murder and assassinate citizens, and because of the slow and inefficient administration of the laws. They declare that they will not commence hostilities against any legally constituted authority, but will defend themselves against all violence, as the exigencies of the case may demand.

Our Monroe correspondent says he is acquainted with Judge Williams and that he is an ardent patriot, having in 1850, run away from the village where he lived because he was afraid of the cholera. He says: "His absconding from the rumors of danger at Fort Scott, and his reports of murder and blood and thunder were only a second edition of his cowardice in 1850, and his awful yams on that occasion, when he spread the most exaggerated reports of the scourge of God on his coward path to the interior of Iowa," were characteristic of the individual.

A SUCCESSION OF AFFLICTIONS.—Election week was a trying one to "our Larrabee." He was badly beaten at the polls on Tuesday. Wednesday he had a personal "set-to" in Milwaukee, and came out second best. Thursday he slipped from the roof of his house in Horicon and tried the solidity of the ground on which the house is built. Such a rapid succession of afflictions ought to exempt him from any future calamity.

For the Daily Gazette.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In these times that try men's spinal column, when slavery propagandists at the south are threatening to batter down the Union, that slavery may run rampant over the territories, and their sympathizers, aiders and abettors, at the north, are holding meetings and bringing every imaginable force to bear on weak kneed republicans; to induce them to sacrifice their principles, or in doglike phraseology "to sacrafice their party to save their country," and when some republicans are showing unmistakable signs of weakness in the aforesaid spinal region; would it not be well to hold a meeting here in Rock county, if they hold one no where else, and give an expression by those who don't believe that the election of Lincoln, nor the suppression of the African slave trade, nor yet the personal liberty bills of northern states, are sufficient cause for a dissolution of the Union? My opinion is that such a meeting should be held in all the northern states. It would sustain those who are strong, stiffen those who are weak, and give doughfaced and traitors, both north and south, to understand distinctly, that we do not propose to compromise away that for which we have fought so hard to win.—Let us stand forth and tell those legitimate sons of tory sires in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, South Carolina, Georgia and elsewhere, that they can neither destroy the Union nor carry slavery into the territories with our consent, nor dictate to us until they subdue us.

Yours, * * *

SARDINIA'S PROPOSAL TO THE POPE.—Victor Emanuel's government offered to be responsible for that part of the public debt at Rome, which falls to the territory occupied by Sardinia. Cardinal Antonelli met these overtures with a peremptory refusal.

A GOOD IDEA.—The street inspectors of Troy, N. Y. have ordered the slippery sidewalks to be sprinkled with saw-dust, to lessen the dangers of "slipping up." The perils of pedestrianism in the city are considerably lessened since the adoption of the "saw-dust platform."

A DELUSION.—The report of the death of ex-senator Delazon Smith of Oregon, proves to be a delusion. The report of his death had its origin in a paper politically opposed to him—speaking of him as dead—in a political sense.

THE CHINESE WAR.—SACKING OF PEKIN.—On the 9th of December intelligence had been received in London that the allies had captured Peking; that the Emperor's summer palace had been sacked and immense spoils taken, and that the Emperor had fled to Twanky.

HOLIDAY GIFTS.—Monday will be a busy day in the purchase of Christmas gifts. The entire week will be more or less devoted to an interchange of friendly remembrances. Many of our business houses have supplied themselves liberally in anticipation of a large demand, and we hope our citizens will remember them, instead of sending away from home. Our resident dealers are all interested in the general prosperity of business, and have claims upon the local trade that ought not to be forgotten. The money paid them helps sustain those who sustain us, and it is kept at home for home circulation. It is a good rule, in all kinds of business to support each other.

THE RIGHT KIND.—One of our merchants who sent to the east payment for a note held against him, with exchange, received an acknowledgment, saying "we admire your pink," and crediting him in his account with the exchange. This is the right kind of spirit on the part of the eastern holder; as well as the right "pink" in the western market.

FOLK-SOONS.—The beautiful volume with this title is intended as a gift book for all seasons, and is composed of emotional poems, made for the popular heart, by many famous poets. It has sixty original illustrations, exquisite in design and execution, and fifteen autograph copies of poems, expressly contributed for the work. The printing and binding are specimens of perfection, and the whole work is the richest and most elegant gift book ever produced in America. For sale by O. J. Dearborn.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.—The officers of Fulton Lodge No. 69, will be installed at the lodge hall in Edgerton on the evening of January 2d. We understand invitations to witness the ceremony will be extended to persons not members of the fraternity. An address will be delivered. The lodge is in a very flourishing condition, and numbers among its members some of the best citizens of Fulton.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. No. 3.—A special meeting of this company will be held at their hall on Monday evening Dec. 24th at 7 o'clock. Every member is requested to be in attendance.

D. C. WARD, Foreman.

Wm. M. Birt, Sec'y.

SACK COMPANY, No. 1.—A special meeting of Sack company No. 1, will be held at its room in empire block, Monday evening, Dec. 24th, to appoint delegates to the convention to nominate officers for the fire department.

CHAS. HOLT, Foreman.

Circuit Court.—The jury, in the case of Mapes, were discharged last evening without agreeing upon a verdict.

This afternoon, Henry A. Ewing was sentenced to six months imprisonment in the state prison for larceny.

John Thornton and Nicholas Shammour were sentenced to imprisonment three years each for burglary.

J. T. W. Murray, for obtaining goods under false pretenses, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50.

Common Council.—But little business was done in the council last evening.

A liquor license was granted to Iuman & Pepper. The committee appointed to examine the accounts of the various city treasurers since the organization of the city, was granted further time to report. An order was adopted to employ some person to watch the bridges and report and prosecute all violations of the ordinance against fast driving. Orders on the judgment fund in favor of Mrs. A. M. Case and Miss Webster were authorized. An order for $3 to Scott for labor on the bridge, and one to Thomas Thornton for $12.50 on the 2d ward fund for stone used in repair of Milwaukee street, were voted.

Adjourned to Friday evening next.

BRING IT BACK.—A large, heavy black overcoat was taken by mistake from the high school building last evening, and another left in its place. The coat taken had several printed cards in one of the pockets, with the name of Frances C. Whittier. The person making the exchange is requested to call at this office and "trade back."

THE PORTAGE CITY RECORD says that an attempt was made to burn the business portion of that city last Friday evening. Carefully prepared faggots and balls of wicking saturated with spirits of turpentine were placed under a barn immediately in the rear of the wooden block on the west side of De Witt street, and set on fire. Happily it was immediately discovered and extinguished before it had communicated to the building at all.

MOAS VIOLENCE.—On Friday evening last a party of six men, who had just been driven out of the south, after being subjected to almost inconceivable indignities, passed through this city on their way to Rhode Island, where most of them reside. They report that in the cotton states the mob, organized into vigilance committees or bands of minute men, are making a clean sweep of all who have the misfortune to have been born in the north. —Chicago Tribune.

DEATH ON THE DEER.—The carcasses of thirty-one deer were brought into Eau Claire on Monday last week, in one batch. There were at least fifty taken into the same town within three days.
